

THE ACCOMMODATIONS ACCESS FUND (AAF)

What it is and how to use it!

WHAT IS OUR GOAL?

- The Accommodations Access Fund is a part of the University of Virginia's Support and Access Services Branch (SAS) that partners with the University's Student Disability Access Center (SDAC)
- Our Primary goal is to provide support for students in financial need and need accommodations through a Band-Aid relief fund and an Accessibility fund.

THE PROCESS

All graduate and undergraduate UVA students who are interested in applying for either fund can begin the process by accessing the application form on the SAS website and/or SDAC.

The application is composed of two parts -

- A 10 question questionnaire
- A face to face consult with SDAC to better understand the support you need

Your application will be reviewed and you will hear back within 2-3 weeks.

BAND-AID FUND

This fund's primary purpose is to provide students with monetary aid in times of emergency This is a one-time use fund with a cap at $200 that can cover things like:

- prescriptions
- copays
- deductibles

Monetary funds will be distributed in in one of two ways:

Reimbursement - a check will be delivered upon submission of receipt

SFS - funds will be distributed to your Student Financial Services account

*Certain conditions apply

ACCESSIBILITY FUND

This fund's primary purpose is to provide students who are applying for SDAC accommodations and unable to cover specialist consults and testing.

This fund can be applied to and used in a spectrum of ways such as:

- Medical Allowance for accessibility items
- Learning Disability Testing Support - covering fees associated with specialist consults
