

HESS-NEWMAN-JARGOWSKY-STOKER
SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATION
2023-2024 AWARD

This scholarship was established in memory of Natalie Newman, Karen Jargowsky, and Erika Hess- all members of the class of 2001 – and Megan Stoker of the class of 2000. It honors their many contributions to the University of Virginia and the courage with which each faced untimely deaths due to cancer. The scholarship is awarded on an annual basis to a non-graduating student whose life has been significantly touched by cancer. This impact may be a result of one's own illness or that of a close family member or friend.

The award is for $1,000.

Applications should be returned electronically to Barbara Zunder at bz4e@virginia.edu by 5:00 p.m. on Friday, March 1st, 2024.

Please direct any questions about the scholarship to Barbara Zunder, Director of the Student Disability Access Center and Chair of the Hess - Newman-Jargowsky-Stoker Scholarship Committee. You may reach Barbara via email at bz4e@virginia.edu or via phone at 434-243-5180.
