

ANNOUNCEMENT

STILLFRIED-GODSEY MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP

The Franz Stillfried and Patricia Godsey Memorial Scholarship Committee is calling for nominations and applications from the University.

The Stillfried-Godsey Memorial Scholarship Fund was established to honor two former directors of the Independence Resource Center in Charlottesville, Franz Stillfried and Patricia Godsey. Together, Mr. Stillfried and Ms. Godsey worked to make the University and the Charlottesville community more accessible to people with disabilities. Franz Stillfried, as a former University of Virginia student, was one of the University's greatest advocates for people with disabilities.

The scholarship will be awarded for the purpose of financially assisting a student with one or more permanent physical disabilities to study toward a degree at the University of Virginia. The award is made annually in recognition of intellectual potential and the characteristics of leadership and individual motivation, with the goal that the recipient shall become a positive role model for other students. The award can be used to cover non-academic needs such as attendant care and assistive technology.

Applications should be returned electronically to Barbara Zunder at bz4e@virginia.edu by the 5pm on the date listed on the scholarship website.

Please direct any questions about the scholarship to Barbara Zunder, Director of the Student Disability Access Center and Chair of the Stillfried-Godsey Scholarship Committee. You may reach Barbara via email at bz4e@virginia.edu or via phone at 434-243-5180.
