Some applicants find it helpful to compose their answers in advance and then paste the text into the application form.

Question 1: Why are you applying to be a peer health educator? What do you hope to achieve for yourself and others in this role? (maximum word count: 150 words)

Question 2: What previous experiences (academic, volunteer, personal or work-related) have prepared you in some way to be a peer health educator or to deal with some of the issues that the peer health educators address? (maximum word count: 250 words)

Question 3: Choose ONE of the following questions (maximum word count: 150 words)

A) What's something about you that your friends find unexpected or 'off-brand'?
B) What kind of tree would you be and why?
C) What's your real life superpower?

Question 4: What are some young-adult attitudes/behaviors that you would like to address? What are some ways you think we can address these attitudes/behaviors? (common examples: well-being, health/social issues, etc) (maximum word count: 400 words)

Question 5: Talk about a memorable experience working on a team- try to address any obstacles that you overcame and reflect on what worked and what didn't. (maximum word count: 250 words)

Question 6: Please list (bullet point format is ok) any other time commitments that you will have in the Fall 2021 semester outside of classes, and approximately how many hours per week are spend on each commitment (format: PHE: Tuesday nights 5-6 pm; 2 hours average per week)